

I would be extremely upset by anything that might change the telephone privacy act in Indiana. I had resorted to paying $9.50 a month for caller ID before this came along, and I am extremely pleased with not having to deal with "junk" calls.